For Vice-President

Under this head the Gold Hill (Nev) News has the following

The Oregon papers are urging the claims of Senator Williams, of that State, for the National Union Vice Presidency nomination They make up a strong record in his favor, but it seems to us they fail to present a grand point in his favor when they forget his position in hostility to the present Federal Mineral Land Bill In opposition to that measure on the 18th of June, 1866, Senator Williams said

"The Senator from Nevada [Mr Stewart] professes to be astonished because I am opposed to this bill I venture to say that nine tenths of the men who are to day engaged in mining are opposed to this bill or any other bill of like nature The gentleman says that it is not in my power to prevent agitation upon this subject, but his own admission here to day is that this bill in itself is imperfect, and additional legislation will be required to make it perfect in its workings"

We call the attention of miners to what Senator Williams described as the ultimate effect of Stewart's pet measure

"Under the terms and provisions of this bill, a person may take a claim according to the usages and customs of a mining district, and he may file his plat and a patent; the title becomes perfect in him, and then he may cease operations upon the claim and he may hold it for an indefinite length of time He may proceed in the same manner on another claim, and so in this way claims may be acquired by individuals, not for the purpose of mining, but for the purpose of holding until they shall be increased in value by the operations of miners in the immediate neighborhood and vicinity, and in this way the property may accumulate in the hands of individuals, or in the hands of companies, the business may come to be a monopoly in the hands of corporations or capitalists"

Stewart was ever fulminating against the "old common law doctrine of non abandonment" Where is this record for him, on this point?

Senator Williams' record on this bill entitles him to the cordial approval of the miners on this coast, an approval they may well show by instructing delegates for him as a candidate for the second office in the gift of this Republic.

McCULLOCH AND ATTORNEY-GENERAL STANBERY—The following is from the Washington correspondence of the Philadelphia Press

A few days subsequent to the adjournment of Congress, one of the strongest Republican members of the House, who is also one of the leading opponents of the impeachment movement, took occasion to visit Attorney-General Stanbery and Secretary McCulloch, and during the conversation which ensued, expressed the opinion of his associates regarding impeachment, He charged Stanbery with doing everything in his power to place obstacles in the way of the enforcement of the laws of Congress, and particularly to break down the Reconstruction Acts "Now, sir," he continued, 'you must clearly and fully understand that if the President does not faithfully execute the law we have just passed, the first thing Congress will do on re-assembling will be to impeach him, and I for one will exert myself to secure that end." He further expressed the opinion that impeachment would be easily accomplished under such circumstances Stanbery replied that he felt sure that the President would execute the laws so as to avoid trouble, the more so of late, because he has made up his mind at the expiration of the Presidential term to return to Tennessee for the purpose of presenting himself again as a candidate for the Senate He concluded the conversation on his part by a promise to use his influence to secure the enforcement of the laws to the letter of their intent. Secretary McCulloch, in reply to removing honest officers in his Department for the purpose of giving places to political favorites, some of whom, in the language of the member referred to, were "swindlers and robbers," replied that his recommendations in the matter of appointments has been frequently ignored He virtually made the same promise regarding the enforcement of the Reconstruction Acts as that made by Stanbery, when the interview terminated.

General Grant has been spending a few days in the city He has gone to Long Branch as the guest of Chas A Stetson, Jr, where a grand ball is to be given in his honor on Thursday night He has kept very quiet since he has been in New York He dislikes parade and attention. He says he never gets into a carriage on great occasions, when crowds surround him and shout his name, but what, mingling with the pageant, are the groans of the wounded, the sick boys in the hospital, and dying on the battle field. He has two or three cosy nooks in New York into which he retires with a few friends to enjoy a confidential chat. He is very peculiar in his habits It is said he has not drank a glass of spirits since he was appointed Lieutenant General He is breaking himself of his inordinate use of cigars, sensible that in the inaction of peace the the custom hurts his health. Nobody can can get anything of him by asking questions He seldom answers any that are put to him, but if left to himself he will talk freely and clearly on all public matters He is not without his solicitude in regard to public events He considers matters more critical than before the surrender of Lee Some one said to him "General Grant we do not know what is before us, but as long as you are at the head of the army the country feels safe, for it has undiminished confidence in you Your death or removal from the army would not only be a national calamity, but would so shake the national confidence as to well nigh cause a revolution" General Grant said nothing, his eyes moistened with tears—a degree of emotion he seldom exhibits

JEFF DAVIS AND THE VERMONT PEOPLE—Jeff Davis visited Stanstead recently, and was the guest of T Lee Terrill Fred Terrill brought him from Sherbrooke, in a very quiet manner, professedly to see the country and to consult in regard to an investment in the gold mines of Hatley One day, as we learn from the Newport Express, Terrill, in his best turnout, took Davis about the village to ride, when several incidents transpired not altogether pleasing to either the host or his guest Not only boys but men hooted at him in the street, and greeted him with these familiar words,

"We'll hang Jeff Davis to a sour apple tree"

He was frequently asked where he left his petticoats, and various like remarks, more suggestive than pleasing, everywhere fell upon his ear One lady stung by the recollection and death of a near relative at Andersonville, gave utterance to her feelings by hurling a stone at him Permission was asked that Jeff might ride about the grounds of Carlos Pierce and take a look at his noted herds, but the request was emphatically denied by Henry Pierce, in charge of the premises who declared in unmistakable language that in no event would Jeff Davis be admitted to those grounds

MAIMING WOMEN—HORRIBLE TREATMENT!—There has been latterly a good deal of rivalry between the citizens of Chicago and Cincinnati, which serves to make each interest sharply critical of the other The Cincinnati Gazette has fairly caught the Chicago Republican, thus

It appears by an article in the Chicago Republican that the men of that place have a curious way of maiming and disabling women after they have served their pleasure Writing of the ways of the frogs, and of Mr Buck, the great frog catcher it says

"When Mr Buck first began to kill them it was easy work, for they did not seem to fear him But that is all over now, and the frogs have lost all their old faith in man They see that men only seek after them to cut off their hind legs and cast them aside as they do women after having won their love"

TENNESSEE—Gen George H Thomas has instructed the United States military officers in Tennessee to recognize the militia of the State as "among the regularly constituted authorities of the State," and to hold themselves in readiness for any emergency in the suppression of lawlessness

"I hold it to be a fact," says Pascal, "that if all persons knew what they said of each other, there would not be any friends in this world."

The Steady Progress of Republicanism.

[From the Richmond Whig]

Speaking of the Democratic party, the Enquirer says "Why should we kindle against us the animosities of a great party that rules in a number of States and divides others, and that grows stronger with every revolution of the political wheel?"

The Enquirer is mistaken The Democratic party does not rule in a number of States. There are but four States in the Union that are even partially controlled by the Democrats, as far as we are informed—Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland and Kentucky In Connecticut, the Governor is a Democrat, while the Legislature is Republican The Democrats, in no sense implying power, "divide" other States, and there is not one iota of evidence to show that the Democratic party "grows stronger with every revolution of the political wheel" That party is as weak as water. It scarcely deserves the name of party at all

"Kindle animosities!" Why, we ask, should the people of Virginia kindle against them the animosities of a party that is great—great in numbers, energy, resources, power—the Republican party—a party that dominates over almost every Northern State and has indisputed control over the Federal Government?

If those who were Confederates engage against this party, and vote and work against it, what can they expect from it in the way of kindness? Nothing Do they expect to defeat that party and prevent it from carrying out its policy? If so, they expect an impossibility. That party is the Government, and its will is law. We do not exaggerate All that is necessary is for it to say that Congress shall do, and it is done. The resolve of a Republican caucus to day becomes tomorrow the law of the land by the enactment of Congress, and there is no power of successful resistance to it anywhere—in the Supreme Court, the Executive, the army, the navy, the north, and, least of all, the South It is idle to say that it cannot do this or dare not do that Its power, humanly speaking, is only limited by the will of the northern masses, by indeed its own will, for the northern masses and the Republican party are one and the same As to dare not, it dare attempt anything A party that hesitated not to undertake the subjugation of the Southern States at a cost of five hundred thousand lives and three thousand millions of dollars, to emancipate four millions of slaves, to enforce martial law throughout the whole North, to give suffrage to the emancipated slaves, change the Constitution in the most important particulars, is not likely to halt at inferior undertakings It is not of all the unreasonable things, the most unreasonable to expect it to be afraid after it has done these things to undertake and complete the reconstruction of the Southern States in its own way, and to the ruin of those who oppose it? We can very well understand why we should not do anything to "kindle against us the animosities" of this great party.

THE AMERICAN PRESIDENCY—ENGLISH REVIEW OF THE RADICAL CANVASS—The Washington correspondent of the London Herald says

Speaking of Wade, it is not out of place to mention the fact that that gentleman has lately disavowed any intention to seek the Presidency. He says that he is an old man and that he needs rest, but he does not say that he would decline a nomination. And, by the way, it will surprise some people (Bright, perhaps, among them) to learn that Wade considers the condition of the working classes in this country a very deplorable one. "There is," he says, "deep discontent among the masses, both in this country and in England. There is a restlessness, a feverish excitement, a discontentedness with their lot * * that we cannot disregard. They want more recreation. * * They are casting about for relief from their monotonous and half starved condition, and they will have it." So it seems that in this land of the West, this paradise of the poor, the laboring classes are "half starved." This is certainly a strange state of affairs in a nation where every man is a sovereign

State Conventions have been held by the conservatives and radicals in Maine, and by the radicals in Pennsylvania, during the week. The Maine conservatives resolved that the Southern Representatives should be admitted to Congress, that the last Congress was a usurping body, and that "the exemption of government securities from taxation is an outrage upon the rights of the people and a violation of the principles of justice" The Maine radicals resolved that all men "are created equal," that "impartial suffrage should be the uniform law of the States," that the course of Congress is just and wise, that Gen Sheridan is entitled to praise, that the national debt should be funded and that the law in relation to the taxing of United States bonds and stocks in National Banks should be adjusted * * * on the constitutional principles of equality," whatever that may mean. The resolutions of the Pennsylvania radicals demand severe punishment for "treason" (that is, demand confiscation,) denounce President Johnson as "faithless," insist that the doors of all the Courts of law and equity shall be closed against "traitors," applaud the course of Congress and thank General Sheridan and General Sickles Three several resolutions denounce the President. The persons nominated by these Conventions for State officers are men unknown beyond the borders of their respective States

An attempt was made by means of a strange argument, to show that General Grant is a strong radical, namely, by proving that General Rawlins, a member of Grant's staff, has lately delivered a speech in favor of the policy of Congress it being supposed that Rawlins speaks for Grant It is probably well known that the Republican party is divided into several factions on the subject of nominations for the Presidency—one of the most powerful factions supporting Chief Justice Chase, and another supporting Grant. It is a fact worth recording that the person nominated by the radical Convention of Ohio for Governor of that State is a "Grant man" Ohio, it will be remembered, is Chase's State So that it appears that Grant has more friends where Chase is well known than Chase himself.

From Mr Goldschmidt, of the volunteers, we have an account of one of the most terrific encounter on record Not with Indians, but with one of their rivals, a Cinnamon bear It appears that a scouting party of ten men from Captain Campbell's company had reached Boulder creek, fifty miles below the camp of the militia, and were camped for the night A party of three or four started out for a bear hunt, "sign" having been discovered in the vicinity About 150 yards from the camp, they succeeded in killing a fine Bruin A portion of the party stopped to dress him but the Orderly Sergeant (name unknown) pushed on and in a couple of hundred yards further raised another huge bear weighing about 750 pounds The Sergeant fired his "Henry" twice, wounding him severely being only a few paces distant The third attempt his gun missed fire when the bear made for him and before the Sergeant could draw his revolver, raised on his hind legs and tackled him The fight was now terrific The grip of Bruin was so effectuate that the Sergeant could not draw his revolver, but plunging his hand into his mouth he caught him by the tongue and held his grip! The bear maddened by the efforts of his wounds, used his claws terrifically and while munching the hand in his mouth tore with his sharp claws the scalp off the unlucky Sergeant until it hung in tatters about his ears But the Sergeant was pluck personified and actually succeeded in throwing Bruin squarely three times—to be instantly turned and regain his feet This encounter lasted several minutes His comrades hearing the shots started in that direction and on getting sight of the encounter ran as rapidly as possible to his assistance One of them a mere boy, ran had them just as the Sergeant was getting the advantage, and was drawing his revolver with his free hand, Placing his gun against Bruin's head, he gave him the contents Bruin let go the hand, fearfully lacerated and seizing the muzzle of the gun chewed it up like paper, but his hour had come and he rolled over into the arms of death. The Sergeant returned to camp, and mounted his horse and with one companion rode all night, reaching the Yellowstone camp in the morning Here the surgeon sewed on his scalp, which had been hanging loose all that long night ride, dressed the mangled hands, and the brave fellow is getting along handsomely.

FRIDAY MORNING, AUGUST 30, 1867.

The Spite of Baffled Corruption.

The majority of our City Council have carried their schemes of partisanship and corruption to such lengths as have thoroughly disgusted every fair minded citizen of whatever party. Before the election we endeavored to tell the people what they might expect of this faction should it obtain a triumph; but the result is so much worse than we supposed that we are unable, even after we have witnessed it, to do the subject any sort of justice. Immediately after the election the five members combined for the purpose of controlling the patronage of the city and putting the plunder into their pockets; one of their number, by the aid of his own vote was chosen Marshal, and it is notorious that the conditions on which he was elected were disgraceful and corrupt to the last degree. As he was not legally elected, Marshal Hoyt declined to deliver up the office, and the Council undertook to dispossess him by bluster and intimidation. Because the Recorder refused to recognize Rosenheim as Marshal, he was threatened with removal, and a volley of resolutions and ordinances, all of the most ridiculous, yet of the most savage description, was hurled at him and the Marshal. The only effect of this impotent warfare was to bring upon those who were engaged in it a torrent of ridicule. Finding they could not get the office by this senseless fustian, they took their case into Court. Their first attempt in this direction was to obtain the office without trying the case on its merits and so evade every question at issue; but they were quickly sent out of Court and given to understand that their sharp practice would not be tolerated. Being compelled to bring their case into Court in the manner prescribed by law, they appeared and submitted it on its merits, when the Court decided substantially that Rosenheim could not hold the office he was contending for. This was a rebuke of their corrupt practises and a complete vindication of the Recorder and Marshal. But the majority of the Council pay no attention whatever to this decision, except to treat it with contempt, and continue in their factious, partisan course, as if the Court had rendered no decision in the case. They still insist that Rosenheim is the lawfully elected Marshal of the city, and that the Recorder's conduct in not recognizing him as such, is in violation of his trust as a public officer. These Councilmen, be it remembered, belong to that party which boasts of its reverence for the laws and its respect for the decisions of the Courts. This is an instance of its obedience to the mandates of a lawful tribunal. After the practices of the corruptionists are arrested by the Court, they propose to pay no regard to its decision. After it has been declared by competent authority that the Recorder and Marshal are right, those five members of the Council persist in their partisan scheme, adopt a report virtually setting the authority of the Court at defiance and endeavor to [illegible] themselves by attempting outrages upon a city officer which are as totally without precedent as they are far beneath the action of any set of men having the slightest claim to manliness or decency. Their conduct is but the spite of baffled corruption, and their impotent rage serves only to show the character of the unscrupulous partisans who are temporarily in power in the city. Such is Democracy. It may succeed [illegible] in gaining power under false pretenses, [illegible] the means by which it succeeded here and by which alone it can succeed anywhere; but after it gets the power it never fails to prostitute it to promote its own selfish designs.

"When We Were in Washington."

It is becoming tolerably well known that the editor of a Democratic paper which circulates to some extent in this community, was once in Washington. At least his readers have his word for it, and he has told the story so often that it cannot have escaped their notice. Like all good things the story will bear repetition, and we therefore take it up and tell it once for him.

"Before we had ever visited the green forests of Oregon, and while the wide and uncultivated people of this State were still without a missionary to enlighten them, matters of a personal nature which it would be tedious and uninteresting to relate, led us to visit Washington. Being naturally a flunkey, our ambitions led us to seek the society of men occupying prominent positions both in civil life and in the army. We took infinite pains by the adroit use of the arts of the sycophant to make ourself agreeable to this class of men, and succeeded admirably; at least we infer so from the fact that we were never actually kicked out of their company. We there formed an acquaintance with a person who knew Major Dent, the father-in-law of General Grant. This person was also a near relative of the General, and gave us much information in regard to the General's opinions, political principles, etc. Now Major Dent was an avowed secessionist, which fact led us to take great interest in everything he said, and to consider his opinions as entitled to very great weight. Through this means we formed a very familiar acquaintance with the Major, who, we should not omit to state, was an avowed secessionist and father-in-law of Gen Grant.

"Some very important facts came to our knowledge through these channels, which should not go unrecorded. We feel that it is due both to ourself and the country that we should relate them. For, in the first place the narration will show that we have traveled and that we have some personal knowledge of men in high positions; and secondly, it cannot but be of great advantage to the public to be made acquainted with some of the important things which we have been in a position to know. The principal matter connected with our visit to Washington, to which we wish to direct public attention, is that the near relative of General Grant, of whom we have made mention, told us positively that he had it from Major Dent, General Grant's father-in-law, and an avowed secessionist, that the General told him that after the Emancipation Proclamation was issued, he had almost made up his mind to retire in disgust from the army; and the same relative of Gen. Grant told us that Major Dent informed him at that time, that the General had consulted the Major (who, by the way, was his father-in-law and an avowed secessionist) upon the propriety of resigning his commission in the army, and that he, the Major, being a rebel, and having the good of the country at heart, had advised the General not to think of it. These facts, we think, conclusively settle all doubts as to General Grant's political opinions, and show him to be a truly conservative man. As the Radicals are now talking of making Grant their candidate for the Presidency, we have deemed it our duty to relate these facts, as proving that he has no sympathy whatever with their designs, and also as showing that before we came into this benighted State we had traveled extensively, acquired large experience, and made the acquaintance of many eminent men."

It may be proper to state that the above is published (for one time only) without charge to the editor of the Oregon Herald.

Late advices state that General Grant wrote an earnest protest to the President against the removal of Stanton. The President replied to this remonstrance in his usual style.

A dispatch from Chicago, dated August 22d, states that James Buchanan was lying seriously ill at Philadelphia. Fears were entertained for his life.

The Key of the Obstructive Policy.

As it is very evident that the Southern States will generally give Republican majorities, it is the desire of the President and those who are in sympathy with his purposes, to keep affairs in such a state of confusion that those States will not be prepared to vote in the coming Presidential election. This, obviously, is the intention; and it furnishes a reason for the efforts which are being made to obstruct the operation of the laws of Congress. Here is the key of Johnson's present policy. He sees that those States are certain to give Republican majorities, and he desires to keep them out of the Electoral College, hoping that by some means or other the Democracy may be able to choose a majority of the Electors of the Northern States and secure the President. At any rate he believes their chances for success will be much better without the South than with it, and accordingly he is taking the course which seems to him best calculated to prevent the restoration of the seceded States. Whether those States will be in such a situation as to vote in that election it is impossible for anybody to say; but however it may be, the chances for the Democratic party will be equally small. In either case it will be defeated; so that, considered as a mere party question bearing upon the Presidential election, the Republicans would care very little whether the seceded States were allowed to vote or not. But Johnson thinks it of great consequence to the Democracy to exclude them, and hence arise his efforts to delay their restoration to the Union.

At the meeting of the Council this week the handsome little bill of $182 25 was ordered to be paid to the city organ for advertising. Pretty well for one week. Look out for bills of like amount at the next meeting. Now that the "retrenchers" are fairly under way, such things may be looked for regularly.

Dispatches from New Orleans state that had Rousseau remained longer in that city he would have been put under arrest for hindering reconstruction.

FROM OWYHEE.

The following items are from the Avalanche of the 24th:

John A. Post, Esq., for over a year past U. S. Assistant Assessor of Internal Revenue for Owyhee County, has resigned, and Chas. Hilton is appointed in his stead.

A friend of ours visited the Mountaineer Tunnel, in Long Gulch, this week, and reports that a ledge was crossed by the tunnel at about one hundred and fifty feet from its mouth, and that the Company is now sinking on it where it crosses the gulch, just a little way below the tunnel. A scientific friend says a soft, waxy substance coming from the ledge, is chloride of silver, and of course of great value, and we could easily see the native silver in the rock. The vein is full four feet wide in the shaft, which is down a few feet only. There is, to say the least, a very encouraging show for a rich ledge. Specimens of polybasite have been found in the gulch below by placer miners.

The stock of the Oro Fino & Morning Star Company was in great demand for a couple of weeks up to last Saturday, considerable changing hands at par in cash. Judge Gilmore Hays and Marion Biggs both sold their stock for such prices, and we believe others did so.

At midnight of Thursday an attempt was made to burn the Cosmos Company's office by placing a sack of tinder against the office door and igniting the combustive package. It being just at the change of watch, the light was observed by the men at the Webfoot Mill, and the steam mill was made to sound the alarm, and the fire was extinguished before it did any damage.

A letter to the Avalanche, dated "Three Forks, Owyhee, August 15th," gives the following intelligence concerning Col. Coppinger's recent operations against the Indians:

The Colonel left Camp Three Forks, Owyhee, on the 12th inst. After traveling down the creek Camp Three Forks is situated on, some ten miles, he came in contact with a small band of Indians. The Indian scouts estimated them at from eight to ten in number. Notwithstanding the wild horses, the Colonel's command was prompted on; he made a fine charge; rocks and sage brush were not known. After running the Indians some five or six miles, to the main rivers of the Owyhee, where they took water, there was an Indian seen to come out on the opposite side; they are supposed to have all been killed. The Colonel then went to Camp Three Forks, arriving at the Forks on the 14th, and sent out the Indian scouts soon after camping. At three o'clock the Indians returned and reported a camp some twelve miles from the Forks. At 3½ o'clock the command moved out, and at 2 o'clock on the night of the 14th, they made a complete surprise, killing the whole camp, supposed to be from fifteen to twenty, except two prisoners, who are now in camp, and destroying a large quantity of dried fish, etc. The prisoners give accounts of four more camps, which the Colonel will most likely destroy to-night.

THE DELUSIONS OF THE SOUTH.—Not going back beyond the origin of the war, the South, says the Richmond Whig, under the teachings of unwise leaders, has been the victim of the following delusions:

1. That secession would prove a remedy for wrongs inflicted or mischiefs threatened.
2. That war would not result from secession, because the people of the North lacked the courage for such an undertaking; because cotton was king; because they were too shrewd to quarrel with their own bread and butter, and, because the great Democratic party of the North was pledged to throw itself across the path of any army that might attempt to move southward.
3. That if war should result we might confidently count on the assistance of Great Britain, and that with or without such assistance we could never be subjugated.
4. The war being begun, that we had only to hold on, and two things would happen which would secure our triumph: First, a reaction against it, led on by the Democratic party, and, second, a financial crash that would deprive the Government of the means to carry it on.
5. The war being ended, that the North would open her arms at once, would run to meet us, kill the fatted calf, &c., &c.
6. Finding ourselves disappointed in this, that we might safely put our reliance in the President, whose protection would be a sure defence, and whose power would secure for us a speedy reinvestment with the privilege of self-government.
7. The President having failed, that we must again look to the Democratic Party of the North who were about to carry the elections and revolutionize Congress.
8. The Democratic Party having lost rather than gained in the elections, that we must look to the Supreme Court, who would set up the Constitution as our shield and buckler, with the awful frown of justice, would petrify Congress in silence and submission.

This, like the others, has proved a delusion. Thus, one assurance after another of those who would lead us has proved false; one hope after another has failed. What remains? Where next shall we look? Ask the Richmond Enquirer, and it will tell you again, as, in substance, it is telling you daily, look to the Democratic Party? Has not that reed broken and pierced our sides often enough?

What remains? Our condition as a people is a most unhappy one. We need relief, repose, security. We trusted to the President, and he was powerless. We looked to the Supreme Court, and it availed us not. We have waited for a popular reaction in the North till waiting is madness. There is but one recourse left, but it is an all sufficient one. We must overcome the hostility of the party that controls Congress, the President, the Court and the country. We must cease to make an unavailing, reacting and self-hurting war upon it. We must accept its continued ascendancy, and consent that the power of the Government shall remain in its hands. We must secure its confidence and good will. We see no other hope.

ILLINOIS STATE HOUSE.—The Chicago Republican publishes a pictorial representation of the proposed new State House at Springfield for Illinois. The structure is most magnificent in appearance. Its length is to be 354 feet, width 210, hight of walls 95, hight of dome 254, diameter of dome 83. The outside walls of the building to be constructed of limestone, the inner walls of brick and stone, and the floors of brick, arched, and resting upon wrought-iron beams. The window-frames to be of iron. Outside doors of iron, making the building fire-proof and indestructible. The cost of the structure to be a little less than three millions.

BASE BALL.—An enthusiastic base ball player declares that our "national game" was known in Bible times; in proof of which he refers to the question in the parable of the leper—"But where are the nine?"

(DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN)

DATES TO AUGUST 29.

Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—The Intelligencer authoritatively pronounces the rumors of Cabinet changes unfounded.

An examination of the South Carolina Register shows two blacks to one white. Contrary to all expectations, the blacks are ahead in Georgia, where a white majority of 30,000 was expected. Sickles has issued a Circular to the Board of Registration directing them to refuse to register officers of the Militia, upon whom devolved the execution of patrol laws, who afterward took part in the rebellion. Such functions constitutes civil officers within the meaning of the act of Congress.

Secretary Browning attended the Cabinet meeting yesterday, but is again confined to his bed.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—A Washington special says there is no foundation for reports of a breach between the President and General Grant.

The Reconstruction Acts have been enforced with strict impartiality, and politicians will not be permitted to interfere with the troops to accomplish their partisan ends in the work of Reconstruction. In these objects, the President and Grant and the entire Cabinet, perfectly agree.

The Post's special says: Grant has issued an order directing Sickles to report to the Adjutant General from New York. Grant has addressed another written protest to the President against the removal of Sheridan. He especially urges that the public service requires the presence of Hancock on the plains.

The new postal treaty with England goes into effect October 1st. Newspapers and circulars are charged two cents each to Great Britain. Newspapers and other printed matter over two ounces, four cents for each four ounces. Books, six cents each four ounces. Patterns or samples of merchandise, eight cents each four ounces. Postage must be prepaid. Wrappers on printed matter must be open on sides or end. Sample packets are not to exceed two feet long and one wide, and must not be of the intrinsic value which excludes them from the mails. All articles of saleable nature, or having a market value, are reduced to postage on letter. San Francisco is the only office of exchange west of the Mississippi.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 28.—There is unquestionable authority for stating that Sickles has not received any order revoking or modifying the order in relation to the courts, nor has he requested the suspension of any Executive order.

The President has directed that all reservations on the Peninsula and island in the bay of San Francisco, be reserved for military purposes; also that a military reservation be made at Camp Goodwin, Arizona, embracing fifty-six square miles.

GALVESTON, Aug 28.—A number of additional removals for disloyalty, are ordered.

Chief Justice Chase in New Hampshire.

MANCHESTER, N. H., Aug. 25.—Chief Justice Chase arrived yesterday. Gov. Smythe and a delegation of citizens received him. It was the most flattering reception ever given to a public man in New Hampshire.

Wade Hampton on Reconstruction.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 28.—Wade Hampton has written a letter against the injustice and unconstitutionality of the Congressional plan of reconstruction, preferring military rule to the proposed terms. He denies the right of Congress to regulate suffrage, but favors impartial suffrage. He advises the people to register their votes against a convention.

Miscellaneous.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The Republican State Convention will be held at Syracuse on the 25th of September next.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Dr. James Jackson died to-day, aged eighty-nine years. He was the oldest physician in this city.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 28.—A Radical Convention met with the intention of nominating new candidates. Both opposing candidates withdrew, leaving but Conservatives in the field. The election promises much interest.

CLEVELAND, Aug. 28.—The Lake Shore Grape Grower's Convention held an annual session yesterday. Reports show better than an average crop of grapes this year. Some grapes rot and mildew.

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 28.—Full registration returns show in round numbers 72,000 whites and 88,000 blacks. Only ten candidates are announced in the State of South of South Carolina—one colored.

The cotton crop was greatly damaged, recently, by a lack of rains and worms.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 28—Evening.—Southerners have brought their families to this city to escape a negro uprising, which they assert is threatened in many quarters. They say the negroes are all armed and defiant.

There were two more suicides yesterday. About thirty have occurred during the present season.

From Cuba.

HAVANA, Aug. 21.—About eighty cigar factories are closed, being unable to pay the new contribution. This throws hundreds out of employment. The Captain General, President and Common Council, have addressed the Queen recommending the immediate suspension of the new system or they would despair of consequences.

From Canada.

TORONTO, Aug. 28.—There is a great excitement throughout Canada over the election. Smith Riding, of Toronto, is elected member of the House of Commons on the second day's polls. Gibbs beat George Brown, leader of the opposition, by seventy votes.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 28.—The American Minister, Edward Joy Morris, had an audience with the Sultan to-day and presented the resolutions of Congress relative to the war in Crete.

MUNICH, Aug. 28.—A prominent journal, an active organ of Southern Germany, asserts that Bavaria and other States of Southern Germany will not assist Austria or Prussia, but maintain their independence, and will hold balance of power between the North Confederacy and the Austrian Empire.

PARIS, Aug. 28.—Rebel sources continue to report the success of the insurrection in Spain, especially in the province of Arragon. The latest advices state that the insurgents had captured Saragossa, and now occupy the city.

Austria and France unite in persuading Denmark not to insist upon the retrocession of Duppell and Alsenby to Prussia.

The first train of cars passed over the railroad at Mt. Cenis to-day.

LONDON, Aug. 29.—The increasing bitterness of the editorials of the Prussian journals since the Salzburg conference causes much anxiety throughout Europe.

SOUTHAMPTON, Aug. 28.—Among the passengers by the Herman for New York, are Charles Kingsley, the distinguished author, and Mr. Harvey, late Minister to Portugal.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—About noon to-day a brick store on California street fell in crushing a laborer and injuring him so severely that there is little hopes of his recovery. The building was brick, two stories and basement, with a flat tin roof. Three men were employed on the building at the time it fell, two of whom escaped unhurt, but the third was carried down with the ground floor into the cellar. When discovered he was laying on his face with the roof joints resting on his back. Hydraulic lifts were placed under the joints and the pump worked until that weight had got off him and then the brick and rubbish were carefully removed. It was found that his right leg was broken, his back crushed and his hand cut to ribbons, and he was believed to have received severe internal injuries. The operation of getting him out took more than half an hour. The poor fellow was a pitiable sight when extricated. His name is Michael Brudey.

Capt. Gillman in attempting to sound the bar at the mouth of the Coquille river with three men, in a boat, got into the breakers, when the boat capsized and the three men were lost. Capt. Gillman managed to make the boat's painter fast to his body, and floated with the boat to sea on ebb-tide. The next flood-tide brought him ashore and he gained the land. He had been several hours in water, and was much exhausted.

James Richie was sent to the Stockton Asylum yesterday for insanity. He is thirty-five years of age and a native of Ireland. He imagines that some unknown person is attempting to kill him. He has threatened to shoot his wife and himself.

A Democratic mass meeting will be held at Platt's Hall this evening for the purpose of ratifying the municipal nominations of that party.

An important meeting was held at the American theatre last evening, for the purpose of discussing the issues between Gen. Grant and the President. No announcement of the meeting was made till late in the afternoon. At night a display of fireworks was made in front of the theatre, and bands of music played before it from the time the doors were opened till the proceedings began. At that hour the theatre was filled and many ladies were present in the dress circle. Speeches were made by Mr. Rankin, Mr. Gorham and Thomas Fitch.

Money Market.

Under the influence of the news from Washington, gold rose in New York last night to 142¼; sterling 109⅝.

Legal Tenders—Same as yesterday, buying at 71½, selling, 72.

Coin drafts on Atlantic cities are quoted to-day at 1½ per cent.; a decline of ½ per cent. from yesterday. Currency drafts remain at 37 per cent. premium. Gold telegraphic transfers are selling at 1½ per cent., a decline of ½ per cent. from yesterday. Gold bars rule to-day at 880.

Markets.

Flour—City brands unchanged.

Wheat—$1 82½.

Barley—Market quiet at $1 75@$1 92½, for feed and brewing.

Potatoes—Old and new crop, $1@$1 10, selling mostly at inside figure.

Shipping

Arrived—Aug. 28th steamer Pacific, 60½ hours from San Pedro, steamer Oriflamme 3 days and 7 hours from Portland, schooner W. F. Browne, 6 days from Umpqua river.

VIRGINIA.—The following is the last paragraph of the Republican platform of Virginia. It affirms precisely what the victorious party held at the close of the war:

Tenth—General amnesty and restoration to all civil and political rights to the rank and file of the army, to the great body of the people who were misled and seduced into the war by more artful and wicked men, or who were forced by the conscription or otherwise; but exclusion from all political power hereafter to those who were instrumental, either by speaking, writing or preaching in bringing on the war by which this State was reduced to division, humiliation, penury and ruin, as unfit custodians of the public honor and general prosperity of the State.

The New Orleans Republican, speaking of the "unreconstructed element" in that city, says:

"The men who talked the loudest, who did all in their power to get up the rebellion, who obtained fat and comfortable offices, such as "major-generals" of the State Militia, "provost marshals" under Gen. Lovell, men who never saw a battle or risked their miserable lives in the cause of the confederacy, are the very men who now keep up animosities among our people, proscribe Union men, and refuse to submit to the reasonable commands of Congress. Such men are doing all they can to bring about confiscation and disfranchisement."

WAIT A FEW DAYS.—Those Ladies who wish to purchase truly good, cheap and handsome Dress Patterns, should wait till KOHN & FISHEL receive their new stock of goods by the steamer to arrive on Saturday. To those gentlemen who come here strangers, we would say, "Do not be deceived by clap-trap advertisements, but go to KOHN & FISHEL'S for either fashionable or durable Clothing; you will there get an honest, square bargain. REMEMBER! New stock of goods early next week.

DEATH OF MR O'CONNOR.—Thomas G O'Connor, Deputy Marshal of this city, who was shot by Frank Miguel, on the morning of the 22d inst, died of his wound at his residence in this city, at half-past eight o clock yesterday morning Deceased was a native of Ireland, but had resided many years in the United States and for several years in this city. He died at the age of forty-three years and eight months. As a citizen, he was respected as an upright man, and as one governed by both impulses and convictions of right As an officer, he was vigilant and faithful He received the wound from which he died while in the execution of a duty, from the dangers of which most men would have shrunk Occurring as his death did, his loss becomes in some degree a public calamity. It will be consolatory to his relatives and friends to reflect that, in token of the public estimate of his worth while living and regret for him when dead, the county and city flags were displayed at half-mast yesterday, when his death became known The removal of Mr O'Connor from this life, leaves a large family in the depths of such sorrow as the Infinite alone can fathom, and out of which His favor alone can raise them. The last services the living can do for the dead will be performed at two o'clock this afternoon, the funeral taking place from the residence of the family, at the corner of Front and Clay streets, on which occasion all friends are invited to attend

MACHINERY CAST FROM OSWEGO IRON.—Mr. David Monnastes, on Wednesday evening, cast at his foundry, several pieces of machinery for the flouring mill of Mr. Kinney, of McMinnville, using only Oswego pig iron. Yesterday morning the castings were removed from the sand and were visited during the day by many people curious to see what sort of work our domestic product would make. The universal verdict is that the castings are excellent, combining both smoothness and strength. Mr Monnastes and several other experienced workers in iron say without hesitation that it is the best they ever saw. As compared with Scotch pig, it is finer and more even in grain and vastly more difficult to break, and is of course proportionately superior for machinery. The machinery cast by Mr. M., it is expected, will be in place in the mill and running on Saturday, just one week from the time when the first pig of Oregon iron was run off from the furnace at Oswego.

AN OPERA JOKE.—It is related of a couple of opera goers of this city, who were frequent attendants at the musical entertainments given by the Bianchi troupe, that wishing to enjoy them intelligently, they procured at the door, librettos of the opera on two occasions, and during the performances carefully followed the singers, reading the play in English from the books. It is further said that they found this method delightful, as they could perfectly understand, thereby, the whole plot of the opera. The expedient would have been a perfect "success," but for a subsequent investigation by meddling quizzes, who demonstrated that on each occasion the wrong books had been used. Nevertheless, they probably followed the singers just about as well as though they had had the opera which was being performed.

FELL OFF A WHARF.—About half past nine o'clock Wednesday evening, the hands on board the Senator heard a heavy splash in the water in the rear of the Franklin House, and supposing that a man had fallen in the river, some of them repaired to the spot, to find their supposition correct. Other parties had by this time come to the rescue from the house, and a rope was thrown to the man in the water; but he paid no attention to anybody's offer of help, and after swimming around among the piles rather confusedly, succeeded in getting out on the shore. He had fallen between the wharves in the rear of the row of buildings, in what manner we did not learn, nor do we remember his name. The only damage sustained by him was the loss of his hat.

SMUGGLING.—Tuesday evening Collector Hinan discovered in a drug house of this city, a small lot of opium, on which the duties had not been paid. The matter was kept a little quiet, at the suggestion of the U. S. Marshal, and yesterday another party who was supposed to be acquainted with the smuggling, was arrested and examined before Commissioner Wilcox. These are circumstances about the case which lead to the belief that other persons than those arrested, are the ones to be held responsible for this violation of the law. According to such testimony as has been discovered the parties arrested here, have been made the victims of the trickery of others, whom it may be difficult to catch.

A SURE THING FOR EDITORS.—The S. F. Dramatic Chronicle, noticing a saying to the effect that "Heaven is a place for those who have not succeeded on earth," in the sense in which "success" is generally understood, says: "If this is so, the vast majority of editors, writers and Bohemians will be sure to bring up in that good place, notwithstanding qualities that might seem to book them for another destination." Which assurance of the Chronicle is wonderfully consoling. It is doubtful, however, if the Chronicle editor gets to Heaven on that ply out. Generally speaking he is a "success" in this world.

WILLAMETTE FREIGHTS.—The Senator, on Wednesday, being delayed in waiting to connect with the up river boat, did not arrived till about half past seven; too late for us to get her freight list that evening. She brought on that day, 25 sks feed, 11 bales woolen goods, 276 bdls wrapping paper, 4 trunks, 25 boxes fruit, 5 boxes peaches, 240 qr sks flour and 19 cases bacon.
Yesterday the Senator brought down 5 bales woolen goods, 857 qr sks flour, 1 sett iron rollers, 2 hlf bbls produce, 2 boxes mdse, 43 bags wheat, 30 boxes apples and 20 boxes plums.

PAID UP.—The taxes owing to the county by the gang of Chinamen, mentioned yesterday as having been arrested and set to work on the roads, were yesterday paid up by the friends of the parties. Wakeo paid the taxes for three of them, and just as the others were being bundled off to work Ye Loung rushed up to the Court House and obtained their release by "paying charges and taking them away." The Chinamen seem to have concluded that it is better to pay their taxes than to work them out.

SECOND STREET.—Ground was broken yesterday morning, on the Second street improvement by the contractor for the grading, Mr. Perry G. Baker. A set of hands commenced work at the north line of Madison street, working toward Main. The Surveyor and assistants preceded them fixing stakes for the surface of grade. At several places along the street workmen were also employed in laying down side-walks.

IN AFFLICTION.—The wife of Philip Saunders, Deputy Marshal of the city, died at her residence, during the night of Wednesday. The affliction falls heavily on the husband, as the blow which bereaves him of a loved companion also leaves him the care of three motherless children, one of them an infant of only a few days of age. We offer our sincere condolence with the afflicted husband and father.

SPECIAL MEETING.—Multnomah Lodge No. 12, I. O. G. T., had a special meeting last evening to make arrangements to attend the funeral of their late brother, Thomas O'Connor, which will take place this afternoon The members of the Lodge, as well as all members of the Order, are requested to meet at hall of Multnomah Lodge to-day at one o'clock P. M., to attend the funeral in a body. By order of the Lodge.

CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE COMING.—The up country papers contain advertisements of the coming of Lee & Ryland's great circus and menagerie, by which it seems the show is on its way north and will arrive about the last of next week in this city Among other wonderful things it has a "performing buffalo" which will be ridden by a wild "Injin."

SUBSTANTIAL WORK.—The old sills of Couch & Flanders' warehouse, having been removed in consequence of being decayed, new ones of the most substantial size and appearance are being now put in place. The new building, when completed, will be sufficiently strong to bear up any weight likely ever to be placed on its floors.

LARGE PRODUCE SHIPMENT.—The Lafayette Courier says: "Mr. Marion Hendrex, dealer in produce and general merchandise at Wheatland, in this county (Yamhill), has shipped from his warehouse during the past season, 25,-560 bushels wheat, 3,780 bushels oats, 1,225 boxes apples, 15,320 lbs dried apples and 5,650 lbs wool."

APPEAL TAKEN.—In the case of the State of Oregon by A. Rosenheim vs H L. Hoyt, an appeal was yesterday taken to the Supreme Court, by the plaintiff The appeal is taken from the decision of Judge Shattuck overruling the plaintiff's demurrer to defendants answer

NOT SO.—A report was current in this city, yesterday afternoon, that a telegram had been received from San Francisco, announcing the death of Mrs M O Connor We are happy to say that we have reliable assurances that no such telegram has been received here.

TOWED UP.—The steamer U. S. Grant, with a disabled engine, was towed up yesterday by the Ranger. Capt Kerns is talking of putting a new engine into the Grant, by which it is hoped the number of breakages will be materially reduced, in future

IN A CRITICAL CONDITION.—It was reported to us yesterday afternoon, that Mr. Fitzgerald who accidentally shot himself Wednesday morning, was in a very critical condition, the chances being very much against his recovery

DIED.—One of the soldiers who was seriously injured last week by falling from the balcony of one of the company quarters, has since died, as we hear, and was buried on Wednesday.

B. B.—We learn that the Tum-water B. B. Club of Oregon City will come down on Saturday for the purpose of playing a match game with the young Pioneer Club of this city.

TREASURE RECEIPTS.—Wells, Fargo & Co received by the Cascade boat yesterday, $15,000 in treasure from the Upper Columbia.

A FEW MORE LINEN BUSTS left at Harman Bros at $1 75.

BUSINESS MEETING.—The Spartan B B Club will have a business meeting this evening a 8 o'clock sharp

TRAIN OF CARS ON FIRE.—From the Buffalo Express of July 30th, we take the following account of the burning of a train of cars laden with oil on the Lake Shore Railroad:

On Saturday night, about ten o'clock, a freight train of forty-six cars, on the Lake Shore Railroad, a part of which were laden with petroleum, met with a serious disaster about three miles from Brockton, one of the cars taking fire from some unknown cause, and bursting forth with such force as to throw three or four others from the track. The concussion was so great as to burst the tanks, and the oil was poured upon the track and into the gutters, flooding each side for a distance of a thousand ... or more. The blazing oil at once spread along the track, communicating with the cars laden with casks of crude oil. By well directed efforts the conductor of the train was enabled to detach all but some twenty cars and relieve them from danger, some of which were also laden with petroleum The balance of the train was entirely consumed by a fire of terrible intensity. As near as we could ascertain, being on the spot at six o'clock in the morning, some twenty or more cars were entirely destroyed, together with some five or six hundred barrels of oil, and all the other property on board that was not saved by the timely efforts of those in charge of the train, in extricating a portion of the cars on each side of the fire.

The fire spread with fearful rapidity along the track on each side for nearly a quarter of a mile, and until the oil reached the culvert and left the road, consuming in its way fences, telegraph poles, and every other destructible article that came in its path. Indeed, the liquid fire spread with such frightful rapidity that a shanty occupied by a poor woman some distance from the scene of the disaster, was lapped up by the flames with so little ceremony that the occupant barely escaped with her life. The debris of the wreck and that portion of the track upon which the cars were consumed show the intensity of the fire. Heavy rails and even car wheels were melted and bent in every shape. The ties and rails of the track for a distance of several hundred feet are so used up as to render it necessary to replace them before the road can be operated there.

The wear and tear of clothing in washing by this machine is vastly less than by any other known process of washing It does its work by a reverse motion in forcing the water through the clothes.
It having a tight cover, the steam thus assists materially in cleansing the clothes, and also avoids the inhaling of steam from hot suds.
This Machine captured the Special Premium at the California State Fair, and all that have used it pronounce it an invaluable adjunct to old housekeepers and families and washing men and washing women.
It has been extensively introduced throughout the State of California, and receives the universal commendation of all who have used it.

VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittent Fever
Fortifies the System against Miasma and the effects of unwholesome water; invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels.
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.
NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind; no deadly botanical element; no fiery excitant; but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.
The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs
Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.
As a Genuine Tonic, HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.
Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

"Going Alone."

With curls in the sunny air tossing,
With light in the merry blue eyes,
With laughter so clearly outringing,
A laugh of delight and surprise.
All friendly assistance disdaining,
And trusting no strength but its own,
The past tears and trials forgotten,
The baby is "going alone!"

What woful mishaps have preceded
This day of rejoicing and pride!
How often the help that he needed
Has carelessly gone from his side!
He has fallen while reaching for sunbeams,
Which just as he grasped them have flown,
And the tears of vexation have followed,
But now he is "going alone."

And all through his life he will study
This lesson again and again,
He will carelessly lean upon shadows,
He will fall and weep over the pain.
The hand whose fond clasp was the surest,
Will coldly withdraw from his own,
The sunniest eyes will be clouded,
And he will be walking alone!

He will learn what a stern world we live in,
And he may grow cold like the rest;
And just keep a warm, sunny welcome,
For those who seem truest and best;
Yet chastened and taught by past sorrow,
And stronger and manlier grown,
Not trusting his all in their keeping,
He learns to walk bravely alone.

And yet not alone, for our Father
The faltering footsteps will guide,
Through all the dark mazes of earth-life,
And "over the river's deep tide.
Oh! here is a Helper unfailing,
A strength we can perfectly trust,
When, all human aid unavailing,
"The dust shall return unto dust."

NASBY.

A BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH WITH PORTRAIT OF MR. NASBY.

TREMONT HOUSE, BOSTON,
(wich is in the Stait uv Massachoosetts,)
July 20, 1867.

EDITOR TOLEDO BLADE—Sur: Enclosed find photograff uv myself, ez you desired. To make a strikin picter I flung myself into the attitood and assoomed the expreshon wich mite hev bin obserred into my classiklo countenance when in the act uv deliverin my justly celebratid sermon, "The wages uv sin is Death." The $2 wich yoo remitted to kiver the cost uv the picter, wuz, I regret to say, insuffishent. The picter cost 75 cents, and it took $1 50 worth uv Bascom's newest td stiddy my nerves to the pint uv undergoin the agony uv sittin 3 minits in front uv the photograffer. I need not say he is a incendiary from Massachoosetts. Ez the deceased Elder Gavitt's son Issaker hez expressed a burnin desire to possess his apparatus, it is probable that public safety will very shortly require the expulsion uv the incendiary. But I hed my revenge—in his pocket is none uv my postal currency. Sekooring the picter, I told him I wood take it home, and of my intimate friends, those who knowd me, should decide it wuz a portrait, I wood call and pay for it afore he left the Corners. Will I do it? Will this picterskin Ablishnist ever more behold me? Eko answers.

You may remit the odd twenty-five cents, either by draft on Noo York or money order, at my resk.

I wuz born in the year 1806, at—I will not say where. I hev reasons for concealin my birthplace. I don't want to set any town in that Stait up in biznis. That town has gone loonatic and gives Ablishn majorities friteful to contemplate, and I don't want to benefit it by givin it a nashnel reputashen. I don't want tu double the price uv its property—tu be the means uv erectin a dozen or sich a matter uv first class hotels to accommodate the crowds ez wood make pilgrimages thither to visit my birth-place. The present owner uv the house into wich I first opened my eyes onto a world uv sin is a Ablishnist uv the darkest dye, and I hev no desire tu enrich him. Never, by word uv mine, shal he cut that house up into walkin sticks and buzzum-pins.

My boyhood wuz spent in the pursoot of knollege and muskrats, mostly the latter. I wuz a promisin child. My parence wuz Demokrats uv the strictest kind; my mother in perticksler. She hated eny one that wasn't Demikratic, with a hatred I never saw ekalled. When I say that she wouldent borrow tea and sugar and sich uv Whig nabers, the length and breadth and depth uv her Dimocracy will be understood.

Uv my childhood I know but little. My father was a leadin man in the humble speer in wich he moved, bein at various times the different offices in the town up to constable, the successive steps bein road supervisor and pound master. He was elected constable and might probable have gone higher, but for an accident that occurred to him the first month. The good man wuz a talented collector, but wuz singlerly careless in payin over wat he collected. Ez showin the pekooliar bent of genius of the old man, I repeat a conversashun I wunst heard. A man who hed a account to collect, wuz consultin one who knowd my father well, ez to the safety of puttin a claim into his hands.

"Is he a good collector?" askt the man.

"Splendid!" sed the naber.

"Is he a man of responsibility?" asked the man.

"Sartin!" sed the naber, "he hez the ability, but you'll find when yoo try to get your money out uv his hands that he lacks the responsa."

Coed there hev been a more techin tribeut?

He was like all men uv genius, unballanced. His ability wuz on one side. The grovelin plaintiff, who couldn't admire sich erratic flites, raised a ruckshen about the paltry sum, and my father

"Folded his tent like the Arab,
And ez silently stole away."

From that time out, the old gentleman migrated—in fact, he lived mostly on the road. He adopted movin ez a perfeshun, and a very profitable one he made uv it. When his hoss died, the nabors rather than not hev him move, would chip in and raze him another. Appreshiatin the complimen' they pade him be allus went. I menshun these pekooliarities uv my ancestor becos

"The lives uv all grate men remind us
We may make our lives sublime,
And departin leave behind us—"

If our talent runs in that direckshun, ez many debts as he did, though it does require especial talents.

This had its infloocence upon my yoothful mind. I saw not only a great deal uv the country, but much uv mankind, and I acquired that adaptability to circumstances wich hez ever distinguished me. Even to this day, ef I cant git gin I kin take whiskey, without a murmur and with repinin.

My politicks hez ever bin Dimocratic, and I may say, without egotism, I hev bin a useful member uv that party. I voted for Jackson seven times, and fur each succeedin Dimocratic candidate, ez many times ez possible. For Mick Lellan, I only got in four votes. I didn't approve uv the nominashun and wuz not overly zealous. Hed he bin elected, wat would it hev availed me? He hed enuff dismist army officers follerin him, to filed every offis in his gift, and I hed at that time become too old to foller pollytix for the amoozement it afforded, or for the benefit uv any cause.

But this is a digression.

My Dimocracy wuzn't partikerly confirmed, in fact, I wuz not a Dimerkrat from any speshil prinsiple, but more becoz those in the speer in wich I moved wuz, until I arrived at the age uv twenty-four. My father wuz intimately acquainted with me, and knowed my earaktoristics ez well ez tho he had bin the friend uv my buzzem. One day, as I wuz laying on my back under a tree, contemplatin the beauties uv nachur, my parent sez he: "Pete (wich is short for my name) of you ever marry, marry a milliner?"

"Why? father uv mine," replied I, openin my eyes.

"Becos, my son," sed he, "She'll hev a trade wich'll support yoo, otherwise you'll die uv starvashun when I'm gone."

I thot the idea wuz a good one. Thro woman a cuss come into the world, wich cuss wuz labor, and I wuz determined that ez woman hed bin the cos uv requirin somebody to sweat for the bread I eat, woman should do that sweatin. That nite I perposed to a milinor in the village and she rejected my soot. I offered myself in rapid sucesshun to a big widder, who wuz a washerwoman, and to a woman who hed boys old enuff to work, with the same result, when, feelin that suthin wuz necessary to be done to sekoor a pervision for life, I married a nigger washerwoman wich didn't feel above me. Wood yoo bleeve it? Within an hour after the ceremony wuz pronounst, she sold her personal property, consistin uv a wash tub and board and a assortment uv soap, and investin the proceeds in a red calico dress and a pair uv ear-rings, insisted on my going to work to support her? and the township authorities not only maintained her in her looneny, but refused to extend relief to me on the ground that I wuz able bodied.

Ez I left that nigger, I vowed to devote my life to the work uv gettin em down to where they wood hev to support us, and that vow I hev religusly fulfilled. I hev never failed by my vote and infloonce to reduce em to their normal condishun; I never felt good coptin when they wuz put down a peg; I hev never wept sept when they wuz bein elevated. I hev been bathed in tears the heft of the time for five years past.

The offices I hev held hev not been many. I had signers to a petition for a postoffis in Jackson's time, but I killed my chances by presentin it in person. The old hero looked at me and remarkt that it wuznt worth while throwin away postoffices on sich—that when he wanted em he could buy em at a dollar a dozzen. Bookhanan wuz agoin to appoint me, but somehow my antyscedents got to his ears, and he wuz afeerd uv his respecktability, and I never succeeded till Johnson returned to his first love and embraced us.

I hed been drafted into the Federal army at the beginnin uv the war, and hed deserted to the Confederacy. Procoorin a sertifikate to that effeck, I applied for a pardon and a place. He didn't like to give me the offis, but he wanted a party and, as his appointments everywhere show, he coodn't be very portlcklor. I succeeded! I bore with me to Kentucky a commisshun ez postmaster, and I am now livin in the full enjoyment uv that posishen, and I may say I am happy.

The sussety is conjenial. Ther is four grocerries, onto wich I kin gaze from the winder uv my offis, and jest beyond, enlivenin what wood otherwise be a dull landskape, is a distillery, from wich the smoke uv the torment assendeth forever. I hev associates who reverence me, and friends who love me. There is nothin monotonous here. I hev knowd ez many ez eight fites per day, though three or four is considered enuff to break the tedium. And in these delitoful pursoots, leavin behind me the ambishens uv wat mite be called public life, with my daily bread sekoored, with my other sustenance ashoored, with a friend allus to share my bottle, or to speek with a greater or degree of akkooracy, frends allus willin to share ther bottles with me. I am glidin peacefly down the stream uv time, dodgin the troubles and takin ez much uv the good uv life ez I kin.

The twenty five cents menshuned in the beginnin uv my letter, you may, ez I remarked, remit either in postal order or currency.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY, P. M.
(Wich is Postmaster.)

P. S.—Don't remit the twenty-five cents menshuned, in postage stamps. I hev enuff to last me, ez they ain't in demand here, until the Dimocrasy strikes agin for their rites. Uv course all I hev on hand at that time will be uv no akkount. Send it in currency. P. V. N.

The disconsolate one who sings—"Have you seen my Maggie?" has heard of her. Another feller informs him through the music store, that "Maggie's by my side."

"I'd offer thee this hand of mine," has been sued for breach of promise.

"Oh! Susanna," has settled with her at length, and don't owe Susanna any more.

The author of the "Old Arm Chair," is still in the furniture business.

The man who pleaded "Rock me to sleep, mother, rock me to sleep," has at length been gratified. His mother, yielding to his repeated solicitations, picked up a rock and rocked him to sleep. He hasn't woke up yet.

The one who asked, "Who will care for mother now?" has finally concluded to take care of the old woman himself, as no one else seems inclined to.

Personal.

The anexed "personal" advertisements and local item' from a New York paper, tell a story of temptation, sin, shame and death more powerful than the most graphic writer could produce in a three volume novel. They preach a big sermon.

PERSONAL.—Young, dark-haired lady in white, Third avenue car, Sunday evening, noticed gentleman opposite; will please address , Station , Bible House.

MISSING—From home since Wednesday last, . She has dark hair, and when last seen, wore a white muslin dress. Any one giving information of her whereabouts will receive the sincere thanks of a distressed and widowed mother.

MEDICAL.—Ladies that have been unfortunate will call upon Madame , No.—. Relief guaranteed in one visit; perfectly safe.

DROWNED.—Some boys engaged in fishing, foot of street, yesterday morning, found the body of a beautiful young woman floating near the dock. Deceased had on a white muslin dress, a large diamond ring on one of her fingers; she had dark hair and been in the water but a short time. The Coroner was notified.

"FOR HERSELF ALONE."—The Fort Wayne (Indiana) Democrat tells of a beautiful, amiable, fascinating and immensely wealthy young lady in that city, who carefully conceals the knowledge of her wealth, wears cheap clothes, and works in a millinery shop, waiting for an interesting young man to woo and win her for herself alone." There will not be a milliner left in Fort Wayne in six months.

Boston has some sharp detectives. The other day a sum of money was stolen from the pocket of an overcoat hanging in a Washington street store, in which a number of boys were employed. The detective looked them all over, took one aside, and told him that a spiritual medium had pointed him out as the thief, and the best thing he could do would be to put it back. The next morning the money was in the pocket.

A lad who had lately gone to service, having had salad served up at dinner every day for a week, ran away. When asked why he had left his place, he replied: "They made me yeat grass in the summer, an' I wur afeard they'd make me yeat hay in the winter, and I couldn't stand that, so I wur off."

ROBBING THE TELEGRAPH.—The Vedette insists that the Indians have captured six miles of the telegraph wire, and punningly adds that this sort of "wire-pulling" will not do.

MANHOOD AND YOUTHFUL VIGOR are regained by HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER.

Travelers are always liable to sudden attacks of dysentery and cholera morbus, and these recurring when absent from home are very unpleasant. PERRY DAVIS' VEGETABLE PAIN KILLER may always be relied upon in such cases. As soon as you feel the symptoms, take one teaspoonful in a gill of new milk and molasses, and a gill of hot water. Stir well together and drink hot. Repeat the dose every hour until relieved. If the pains be severe, bathe the bowels and back with the medicine, clear.

Fishermen, so often exposed to hurts by having their skin pierced with hooks and fins of fish, can be much relieved by bathing with a little Pain Killer as soon as the accident occurs; in this way the anguish is soon abated; bathe as often as once in five minutes, say three or four times, and you will seldom have any trouble. Sold by dealers everywhere.

THE GLORY OF MAN IS STRENGTH.—Therefore the nervous and debilitated should immediately use HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU.

RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT!

THE MOST REMARKABLE DISCOVERY EVER MADE!

Will Cure All Pains in a Few Minutes!

Read the Certificates:

RHEUMATISM CURED!

PORTLAND, August 10th, 1867.

I HAVE SUFFERED A LONG TIME WITH RHEUmatic Pains, and until now have found nothing to relieve me. To day Mr J. G. Rennick called at my store and assured me that he could cure me in a few minutes. I thought he was mistaken, and laughed at him, but found to my surprise that a few moments after the application of the SITKA LINIMENT, I was relieved of my pains, and I am now improving very fast. I now believe it will cure me in a few days. For further information call at my store, No. 182 First street.

F. WEGNER.

SPRAINED WRIST CURED.

PORTLAND, August 10, 1867.

I was at Mr. Wegner's store on Saturday, August 10th, and seeing the magic effect of J. G. RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, in his case, concluded to try it on my wrist which has been sprained for some time. I found relief inside of FIVE MINUTES from its application, and it is now perfectly well. My wrist was so swelled I could not shut my fingers. I believe it will cure any pain in a short time. I will give any further particulars to whoever calls on me.

Tumor Removed!

PORTLAND, August 10th, 1867.

I HAVE USED RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT for pain and swelling of the gum and cheek. I had a large tumor forming on the gum which arose from killing the nerve in my tooth and caused me a dreadful pain which prevented me from sleep for several nights. I applied the Liniment, and to my surprise, it removed the lump and eased the pain so that it is now as well as the other cheek. My cheek was fearfully swollen. This was done in the presence of two witnesses.

I. MITCHELL.

I was present and know the above to be true, and am willing to swear to it L. QUIVEY.

PORTLAND, August 12th, 1867.

For five years I have suffered with a pain or weakness in my back, which at times was dreadful. I often thought I could not bear such torment. But I got a bottle of RENNICK'S SITKA LINIMENT, and with one rub it perfectly cured me. I can recommend it to any lady suffering from pains in any way, for I am convinced it will at once remove them. Any person who does not believe this can call, and I will convince them.

NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES

Dr. Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering entire miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system! Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends, attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible life-destroying maladies, see that they are cured for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self-abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing, with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms; unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes; pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, feted breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

TO THE LADIES.

The various complicated and distressing diseases incident to females, treated with eminent success. Such as Suppressions, Irregularities, Whites, Falling of the Womb, Tumors, all Urinary Diseases, Nervous Debility, Painful or Difficult Menstruation, Barrenness, etc., will be speedily cured, without poisonous drugs, injuries or unpalatable medicines of any kind. Have no delicacy in calling, no difference what your troubles may be. The afflicted are cordially invited to call and satisfy themselves.

Persons calling at Dr. Gibbon's office or sending for packages of medicines, may rely upon his assurances of confidential secrecy with implicit faith, and expect no more than to be charged with, a fair, and mutually satisfactory remuneration for services rendered, considering the circumstances and difficulties of cases, rather than a too prevalent and selfish practice of extortion among quacks and pretenders.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.

Thousands have been swept into their graves, who had they made a timely use of the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE, might now be enjoying the blessings of life and health. It requires an article of real merit and intrinsic value to sustain itself. During the stern ordeal of public experiment the FOUNTAIN OF LIFE has stood the test trial, and not been found wanting.
